You will learn how to follow a route on the ordinance survey map and be able to point out a selection of symbols to identify features such as road types, church types, abbreviations, contour lines, simple patterns. You will also learn the points of the compass. There is an Achievement Badge Buddy that accompanies this badge included in the price.	The yard Farrier will be giving a demonstration with commentary for this badge to help with your understanding on how to shoe a horse. You must also be able to recognise when a horse needs shoeing and you will learn to identify the blacksmith's tools.	Lush green forest thick with nature and mysterious trails! A fantastic chance to get out of the arena and put into practice everything you have learnt in your lessons. You must be able to walk and trot on your own.	Spoil your pony rotten. Book the pony of your choice (subject to availability) groom them, plait up, if you're feeling brave, clean their tack and make them shine! Please feel free to bring any glitter, ribbons/bows to help make them look fantastic! Once you have your pony looking beautiful, ride them out and get judged on your efforts.	This show will be split according to experience. D+ Test and below in the morning and after lunch D+ and above. The show consists of a basic jumping class, a Condition and Turn Out and a Best Rider Class. (See Schedule)
